What is the Ontario Register of Future Voters?

It's a list of eligible future voters who are 16 or 17 years old. If you're on this list, you will be automatically registered to vote once you turn 18. This means you will be ready to vote as soon as the next provincial or local election is called.

Who is eligible to register?

To be eligible for the Ontario Register of Future Voters, you must be:

- 16 or 17 years old;
- a Canadian citizen; and
- a resident of Ontario.

Why should I be on the Ontario Register of Future Voters?

Being on this list will make your voting experience easier, faster, and more efficient. When the next provincial election is called, you will receive a voter information card telling you when and where to vote.

How do I get on the list?

Just go to vReg.RegisterToVoteON.ca and use our online tool to register. All you need is one piece of ID showing your name and home address.

What if I'm not a Canadian Citizen? Can I still get involved?

There are lots of ways to get involved in Ontario elections, even if you're not a Canadian citizen. For starters, you can volunteer for a campaign, work for Elections Ontario during a provincial election, or host voter registration drives in your school or community.

What does Elections Ontario do with my personal information?

The information we collect for the Ontario Register of Future Voters is used for electoral purposes only.
