

Advance voter turnout for Kitchener Centre by-election

TORONTO, November 25, 2023 – Preliminary figures indicate that 5,405 voters (or 6.2 per cent of registered voters) in Kitchener Centre cast their ballot in advance of the November 30th by-election. In comparison, 10,858 voters (or 12.8 per cent of registered voters) in Kitchener Centre voted before polling day in the 2022 general election.

Canadian citizens residing in Kitchener Centre who will be 18 years of age or older on election day are eligible to vote.

Eligible voters who are on the Register should have received their voter information card with information on when, where, and how to vote. Voters who have not received their voter information card can still vote with an accepted piece of ID.

More information about the Kitchener Centre by-election, including when and where to vote, examples of accepted ID, and a list of candidates, is available at elections.on.ca.
